

314 Part 5 quasi-recit.

When I go back next week-end, I think I might just stay on the main-land.

Pno. quasi-recit.

318 Part 2

Lis - ten to what they're say - ing a - bout us: Like child - ren, a - way from a - dults and

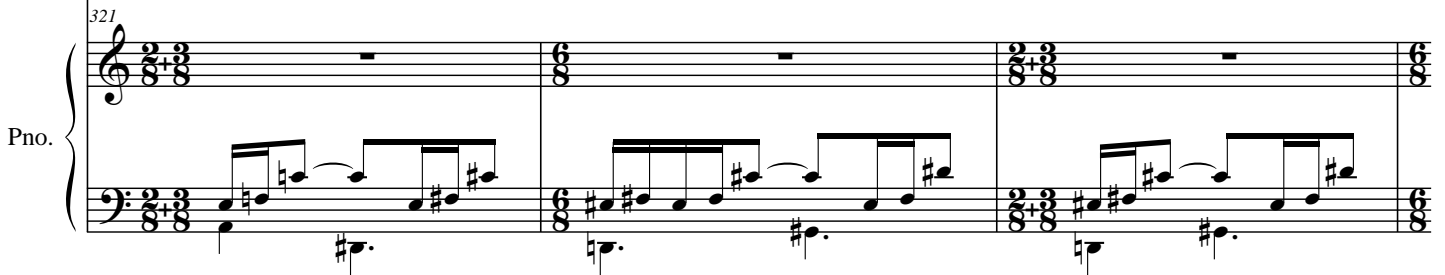

Pno.

ci - vi - li - za - tion, they have es - tab - lished their own bru - tal so -

Pno.

ci - e - ty. Drunk - en - ness is ram - pant, mind - less van - da - li - sm is wide - spread.

Pno.

327

Young toughs, out-fit-ted with spe-cial jack-ets, roam the is-land threat-en-ing and beat-ing the Pno.

330

re-si-dents.

Pno.

Part 9

Here's how we will re-pond: There are al-ways those pre-sent who would ru-in things, but the ma-jo-ri-ty, those ded-i-ca-ted to the true aim of our oc-cu-pa-tion,

334

Pno.

337 Part 8

The is-land has be -

337

will make the spoi-lers in - to true be - lie-vers.

Pno.

340 <sup>2</sup>  $\text{♩} = 50$

come our sym - bol, we can - not trade it a-way.

340 Part 10

The whites say they are con -

Pno.

345

cerned for the de - struc-tion of pro-per - ty at Al-ca-traz. Where is their con-cern for the de -

345

Pno.

struc - tion of our peo - ple, for hu - man lives? Where is their con - cern for us?

Pno.

353  $\text{♩} = 72$

We have not asked them to give up their re - li - gion for ours. We have not asked them to give up their way of life for ours. We have not asked them to give up their go - vern - ment for ours.

Pno.

356

Pno.

360

We have not asked them to give up their ter - ri - to - ries. Why can they not ac -

Pno.

364 recit. 3

cord us with the same re - spect? For the child - ren learn from watch - ing their el - ders, Pno.

368

and if you want your child - ren to do what is right, then it is up to you to set the ex - am - ple.

Pno.

LP: As the months passed, it became clear that the government was no longer conducting serious negotiations. People had forgotten why we occupied Alcatraz in the first place. The government's last proposal was to make Alcatraz into an Indian memorial or a museum. Once again, we had become a sideshow, like Sitting Bull at the rodeo. With all hope lost, the anger began to build once more.

370 ♩ = 84

Pno.

379 ♩ = 56 Part 1

The gov - ern - ment pro - po - sals for set - tle - ment are ri -

Pno.

accel.