

Someday, All Will Come Home

(Bass Aria from Sun Dance)

Lyrics by Leonard Walton

Music by Matthew J. Walton

quasi-recit. $\text{♩} = 72$

System 1: Bass clef, 3/8 time. Lyrics: "I'm tired and I have run out of pa-tience. Our". Piano part in grand staff, 3/8 time.

System 2: Bass clef, 3/4 time. Lyrics: "grand - fa - thers went to Wash - ing - ton, o - ver and o - ver. All they ev - er got were lies." Piano part in grand staff, 3/4 time. quasi-recit.

System 3: Bass clef, 3/4 time. Lyrics: "Some day I will have a son and no one will tell him lies." Piano part in grand staff, 3/4 time. a tempo

System 4: Bass clef, 4/4 time. Lyrics: "I'm tired of liv - ing this way and I don't want to do it an - y - more. What we". Piano part in grand staff, 4/4 time. a tempo do to-day, we do for our child-ren. Some day thou-sands of us In-di-ans will walk back to the Black Hills and say, "We have come home and you will not take us out of here.

15

Pno.

19

Pno.

23

We have come home, and we will live as we wish. We have come home, no you Pno.

26

rit.

will not take us out of here. We have come home, to our home."

rit.

Pno.

3

30

I may not live to see that day. For me, life has always been and will

Piano accompaniment for the first system, featuring a bass line and a grand staff with treble and bass clefs.

33

always be hard. I will always be a warrior.

Piano accompaniment for the second system, continuing the bass line and grand staff.

36

Few that are with me now will be with me at the end.

Piano accompaniment for the third system, continuing the bass line and grand staff.

40

But some day, all will come home.

Piano accompaniment for the fourth system, concluding the bass line and grand staff.